

HDMI Interconnects

High Definition MultiMedia Interface is a unique technology that supports uncompressed digital multichannel audio and true High Definition digital video signals. HDMI can be found on most LCD and Plasma screens as well as many high quality DVD players and Satellite receivers. Profigold HDMI interconnects are certified up to 1080p High Definition resolutions and transmitting the uncompressed signals without any loss for crystal clear sound and razor sharp picture.

HDMI interconnects are not included with new LCD, Plasma or DVD player and must therefore be sold separately.

For real High Definition Home Cinema we recommend the OxyPure PGV10002 High Definition HDMI interconnect.
